Sometimes it is important to read from a new source to get a new perspective and not rely on confirmation bias to always back up what you think you know.

I thoroughly enjoyed, was challenged by and reflected on this new read. Published in 2018, it explores trust, relationships and how to build effective cultures. The book is not written for education but can easily be transposed into most working environments.

I thoroughly recommend this book for middle or senior leaders and for aspiring leaders who are interested in shaping their pedagogy.

A THOUGHT FOR YOU ...

Start where you are,
use what you have
and do what you can.
